USING THIS PRESENTATION

Use this PowerPoint to introduce the design challenge. It also includes optional activities exploring sustainability, healthy eating and design.

Why use a Bag for Life? (Slides 4 to 7)

- Explore the problem with plastic, introduce the concept of bags for life and test the properties of different bags.

Why should we eat fresh fruit and vegetables? (Slides 8 to 10)

- Play the 'odd one out' game, take a healthy eating quiz and explore the views of young people on fruit and vegetables.

How can we create an eye catching design? (Slides 11 to 14)

- Interview each other about fruit and vegetables, review sample designs, generate quick ideas and discuss the judging criteria.

Simple delivery notes are included in the 'Notes' section underneath each slide.

WHY SHOULD WE EAT FRESH FRUIT AND VEGETABLES?

HOW OFTEN DO
YOUNG PEOPLE EAT
FRUIT AND VEGETABLES?

72% of children aged 7–8 are most likely to eat fruit daily

59% for children aged 13–14 are most likely to eat fruit daily.

Are you surprised by these responses?

How do you compare?

HOW CAN WE CREATE AN EYE-CATCHING DESIGN?

DESIGN A RESUSABLE BAG THAT WILL INSPIRE PEOPLE TO EAT FRESH FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.

Your bag design must encourage and inspire people to eat fresh fruit and vegetables.

INTERVIEW EACH OTHER:

- How do you feel about eating fruit and vegetables at the moment?
- What inspires you to eat fruit and vegetables?
- What do you like about fruit and vegetables?
- What do you think might encourage you to eat more?

SIX QUICK IDEAS IN 10 MINUTES

Creating your quick ideas

- Fold a piece of A4 paper into six sections.
- In each section, draw simply (sketch) a different idea for your bag design. You will be timed!

Reviewing the quick ideas

- What was similar?
- What was different?
- Do we have any new ideas?
